Equipment suppliers for people with disabilities

The following equipment suppliers provide a variety of types of equipment to aid individuals with a variety of needs. Types of equipment may include personal care, mobility and leisure.

This is not a full list of potential suppliers. You may find details of further suppliers in your local telephone directory/on the internet.

Please note that there are numerous suppliers with different products at different prices. Always take the time to ensure that the equipment you buy is what you need and want and at the best price you can find.

Some equipment you want/need may be available free of charge on loan from the National Health Service or your local Social Services Department – please check with a professional within either of these services to find out what you are entitled to.

Additionally the British Red Cross provide a loans service for some items of equipment on a donations basis.
